

(Regulations of the Fair Political Practices Commission, Title 2, Division 6, California Code of Regulations.)

§ 18707.6. States of Emergency.

Notwithstanding Title 2, California Code of Regulations, sections 18707 through 18707.5, inclusive, the financial effect of a governmental decision on an official is indistinguishable from its financial effect on the public generally if both of the following apply:

(a) The decision will affect an economic interest of the official, other than an economic interest as defined in section 87103(e), in substantially the same manner as other persons subject to a state of emergency, proclaimed by the Governor pursuant to Government Code section 8625, or proclaimed by the governing body of a city or county.

(b) The decision is required to mitigate against the effects directly arising out of the emergency, and strict adherence to the Act will prevent, hinder, or delay the mitigation of the effects of the emergency.
